

Caring is Sharing

Here is a great example of great parenting! Audrey and her brother, Ben of Glastonbury, have been taught to use their money wisely. When they have saved enough money they will observe their family motto. Their motto is to embrace the three S's, which are: Share 1/3, Save 1/3, and Spend 1/3.

With some of the money they saved from holidays and their allowances, they purchased a variety of hygiene and miscellaneous items. They chose to donate these items to the Clothing Bank Etc.

These two young people came into the Clothing Bank Etc. proud as peacocks to drop off their thoughtful donations.

Audrey and Ben brought the bags full of donations and handed them to me, Christine Filanowicz, the director of the Clothing Bank Etc. "I told them how impressed I was with their thoughtfulness to help others in need.

Their dad was beaming as he looked on. They were all invited inside the client room to look around to see what else the Clothing Bank Etc. provides to help individuals and families who are in need of a helping hand.

To Audrey and Ben's parents, "keep up the good work with your children!"
